SMALL NATIONS TO HAVE PART IN SECRET COUNCIL

WANT GREATER VOICE IN THE SOCIETY OF NATIONS

President Wilson to Attend
Every Session Held
This Week

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Feb. 6.—Positive steps for reconciling differences between the greater and lesser nations at the peace conference, which were begun yesterday, are continuing today. In addition to winning four additional places on the commission on the society of nations, it seems probable that the lesser powers also will be granted adequate representation in the executive body of the society as well as the legislative sections.

The smaller powers are insisting on being given a greater voice in the society and plans under consideration are being revised to meet the situation.

When the commission on the society of nations meets tonight, representatives of Poland, Rumania, Greece and Czechoslovakia will be present, together with those of China, Brazil, Belgium, Portugal and Serbia and the five great powers. President Wilson expects to be present every night this week, as the work of framing the plan for the society of nations is regarded by him as of extreme importance.

CZECHO SLOVAKS PUT CASE BEFORE ENVOYS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Wednesday, Feb. 5.—The supreme council of the peace conference was engaged today in receiving from Mr. Kramarz and M. Benes a statement of the claims of the Czech-Slovak republic. These delegates asked that Czechoslovakia comprise Bohemia, Moravia, Silesia, Slovakia and the Ruthenian section of Hungary as well as outlying regions where the Czech-Slovaks are largely in the majority. This would embrace a territory populated by about 12,000,000 people.

The necessity of giving the new state an outlet to the sea was emphasized. It being pointed out that a way should be found northward by the Elbe and Vistula to the North and Baltic seas, eastward by the Danube to the Black sea, and southward through Trieste or Fiume to the Adriatic. To this end the delegates asked for the internationalization of waterways and railways giving them these outlets.

The hearing given the Czech-Slovaks resulted in the decision by the supreme council to name a commission of eight members—two each from France, Great Britain, Italy and the United States—to look into the technical aspects of the Czech-Slovak claims. After the session the following official statement regarding the meeting was issued:

BOLSHEVISTS WILLING TO HOLD CONFERENCE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Feb. 5.—M. Tchitcherine, the Bolshevik foreign minister of Russia, announces a wireless dispatch picked up here that the Soviet government is willing to participate in the Princes Islands conference. The message bears the date of Tuesday and was sent from Moscow.

The dispatch begins by referring to "complaints from the entente press concerning international revolutionary propaganda" and declares that Soviet government is ready "if there be occasion to enter into a general agreement with the entente powers on their undertaking not to interfere with Russian internal affairs."

It then announces that the government is disposed to confer on the basis indicated in the note from the peace conference, at Princes Islands, or elsewhere, "with all the entente powers or some of them, or even with some of the Russian political groups at the request of the entente powers."

In conclusion, the entente powers are asked to inform the Soviet government without delay where its representatives are to go, also the date and route be taken.

WAR COUNCIL MEETS TO DECIDE ON FORCES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Wednesday, Feb. 5.—A meeting of the supreme inter-allied war council will be held at the foreign office on Friday to decide the question as to the strength of the forces to be maintained in the service by the different entente armies. Conditions for a renewal of the armistice with Germany will also be considered.

19 SMALL STATES ARE RECOGNIZED AT PARLEY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Feb. 5.—Nineteen small but independent nations won definite recognition from the supreme council of the peace conference today, which granted four additional seats on the commission to the society of nations to lesser countries. This gives to the small powers nine seats on the society and ten seats to the five great powers.

According to the decision the smaller powers of Poland, Rumania, Czechoslovakia, and Greece will hold additional seats. This concession to lesser nations became known tonight after a long session of the commission on the society of nations, which President Wilson attended. It was apparently received with satisfaction by the smaller powers, which felt their representation to be inadequate.

TURK TOWNS WANT PROTECTION FROM U. S.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Wednesday, Feb. 5.—The American delegation to the peace conference has received numerous petitions from committees, municipalities and representatives of territories under Ottoman rule, asking to be put under the protection of the United States, or at least that America shall be the mandatory country entrusted with their government.

More significant still is the pressure brought to bear to bring about a decision by which America should be entrusted with the duty of looking after Constantinople, the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles which it is believed will be internationalized by the peace conference.

Even the great European powers are urging America to accept that responsibility, as she is the only country which having no direct interest in the Near East, cannot arouse any jealousy and enjoys the complete confidence of all the peoples of the sections involved without distinction of race.

WILL MODIFY EMBARGO ON ENEMY NATIONS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Wednesday, Feb. 5.—A supreme allied blockade council has been organized to arrange for a relaxation of embargoes upon imports into enemy countries. Vance McCormick, the American member, has been chosen chairman. The other members are Lord Robert Cecil and Baron Berthier, for Great Britain; Etienne Clemente, minister of commerce for France; and Dr. Silvio Crespi, minister of food for Italy.

SHELL WOUNDS CAUSE OF DEATH

Dwight Keller Dies Near Cierges, in Argonne Region During Last Allied Offensive.

Private Dwight Keller, who died of wounds on October 14, 1918, was wounded by shell fire near Cierges, France, and is buried there according to information received by Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Keller in a letter from their son, Private Harry Keller, who is with Battery D, eighth field artillery. In his letter he enclosed another from the commanding officer of headquarters company, Seventh infantry, relative to the death of Dwight Keller.

Private Harry Keller tells his parents he is well and that he received the letter from Captain St. James. In it he says:

"I received the enclosed letter from Dwight's company commander. I wrote him shortly after I received your letter saying that Dwight had been killed. Just got an answer. I think I can get the exact location of his grave as soon as I get a little more information. Also may be able to get a picture of his grave if I can get in touch with the Red Cross in that part of France."

The letter from Captain Robert G. St. James, gives the following account of Dwight Keller's death:

"Your brother died of wounds October 14, 1918. He was wounded by shell fire near Cierges, France, and he is buried near that town. Am sorry I am unable to give you the exact location of the grave. Your brother was a member of the signal platoon of the home guard, Cierges, near Montfaucon, between the Meuse river and the Argonne forest, and northwest of Verdun. We had desperate fighting there from September 23 to October 23, attacking or meeting counter attacks, daily. We captured Cierges, Cunel, Narit, Farm, Clair, Scherens Woods, and many other wood, thick with machine gun nests. Our success there undoubtedly did much to hasten the end of the war and make our presence in Germany on the Rhine possible."

WINE MAKERS ASK FOR EXTRA TIME

Request Legislature to Give Them One Month to Dispose of Goods in Cellar.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Feb. 6.—City officials, chamber of commerce representatives of organized labor of Sandusky and Alliance supporters before the house today, urged the legislature to pass a bill amending the present public utility law to give the public utilities commission power to compel gas companies and other public utilities corporations to furnish service.

The bill was opposed by Freeman Engleson, former counsel for the public commission now representative gas companies.

The legislature committee of the legislature was asked today to give northern Ohio wine growers at least one month after May 27 when the state goes dry in which to dispose of more than 2,000,000 gallons of wine in the cellars of Sandusky wine manufacturers.

GENERAL STRIKE IN SEATTLE TIES UP WHOLE CITY

Union Men Vote to Quit Work, 65,000 Men Being Involved

STRIKERS TAKE OVER BIG RESTAURANTS TO FEED MEN

Telephone and Telegraph
Service Is Crippled By Big Walkout

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Seattle, Wash., Feb. 6.—Seattle's general strike was called at the scheduled time 10 a. m. today. First reports from the downtown section said union street car men started their cars for the barns at 10 o'clock, union elevator operators in all the large buildings abandoned their cars and restaurants closed their doors when the union cooks and waiters left.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Seattle, Feb. 6.—Seattle's industrial and commercial life practically will be paralyzed by the strike. All but some 15 small restaurants taken over by the strikers and needy public were to close. City owned street car lines will run, if city officials carry out their determination but the main lines of the city, owned by private interests, probably will stop. Street car employees of these lines were in session early today undecided whether to face the penalties of striking without sanction of their international officers.

The city light department was expected to operate if the strikers but plans to operate it and other city utilities had been made by the city. Telephone and telegraphic service, it was said, would be given but with considerable modification. Public schools will be allowed to continue. All newspapers are expected to suspend. Mayor Hanson and chief of police J. F. Warren said they were prepared to handle the situation, should disorder arise. The strike leaders proposed to use a large force of men to aid in keeping order. They issued a statement saying these men would be in the uniforms of the United States army and navy.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Seattle, Wash., Feb. 6.—Strike of approximately 65,000 union workers in nearly every trade and industry was set for 10 o'clock today, the decision of the central labor council late last night ratifying the time selected previously by a conference of a majority of 130 unions.

The general strike was called in sympathy with between 25,000 and 30,000 metal trades workers who left shipyards and contract shops January 21 to enforce demands for $5, $7 and $8-a-day for basic trades' helpers and laborers respectively.

At Tacoma, where the labor council voted for a general strike today, it was reported problematical as to whether the walkout would involve a majority of the unions. Between 20,000 and 25,000 men, it was believed, would be affected.

German Chancellor to Start

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Amsterdam, Feb. 6.—Friedrich Ebert, the German chancellor, will open the first session of the recently elected German national assembly at Weimar at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Despatches from Berlin state that after the meeting of the body is thus opened, the speaker will be taken by the oldest member of the assembly, probably Herr Pfannkuch.

The advice given that many members for Alsace-Lorraine have presented themselves for the first sitting of the assembly.

The name of Herr Eichhorn, the former chief of the Berlin police department, who was ousted during the troubles with the Spartacists will be stricken from the role of members as he is a vocal supporter of the Spartacists. He will be succeeded by the candidate in his district who received the next largest vote.

AUSTRIANS SEEK ENTRANCE TO VIENNA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Vienna, Feb. 5.—President Dinghoffs of the German-Austrian National Assembly, in opening yesterday's sessions greeted the German National Assembly which will meet at Weimar on Thursday, he said.

Conditions which will accord our wish to participate in that assembly have not yet arrived, but we must not, in the meantime, let pass unnoticed such an important event. The great German ideal is not extinguished for Germany in this country. Let us salute our brothers in Germany with enthusiasm. Let us rejoice with them that the German people are united and are not divided by the jealousy of rulers."

TOLEDO WILL GREET RETURNING REGIMENT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Toledo, Feb. 6.—Officials of the Toledo commerce club were advised late yesterday by the commanding general of Camp Mills, L. I., that the 329th infantry, which left Camp Sherman for overseas last summer, will be here Friday afternoon. It embraces 157 Toledoans and soldiers from northwestern Ohio. Elaborate plans for reception of the 3,000 soldiers have been arranged.

GERMANY IS LAND OF GRAVE YARDS

American Officer After Tour Of Country Says
Nation Hard Hit By War.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Wednesday, Feb. 5.—Germany is pictured "as a land of grave yards," by Lieutenant Colonel Searle Harris, of the United States medical reserve corps, who has just returned to Paris after having investigated conditions east of the Rhine. He says that the German nation is bankrupt, the people are actually starving and that "probably no one will ever know the number of casualties suffered by Germany during the war."

"There are no eggs, no milk and only half a pound of best sugar for each person a month," he says, in giving details of the situation.

Shop girls have lost from 10 to 45 pounds in weight, while every one shows a lack of vitality. I found children going to school shod with paper sandals or with cloth shoes to which wooden soles had been attached.

"No one knows the composition of the black, gritty bread, that is being issued in limited quantities by ticket. Tuberculosis is increasing and skin diseases due to lack of nourishment and lack of soap are prevalent. One beneficial result of the low diet which has been enforced upon the German people is found in the fact that it has helped many who were over-eaters."

Conditions which he had found in Germany have led Lieutenant Colonel Harris to the opinion, he says, that many women and children will die or become defectives if not supplied with food.

PAPER GETS CHANGE OF VENUE IN SUIT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Detroit, Feb. 6.—A change of venue from Wayne county (Detroit) to some other county in Michigan was granted in circuit court this morning to the Chicago Daily Tribune in the million dollar libel suit brought against it by Henry Ford.

Selection of the place for trial is left to counsel for both sides but in view of their inability to agree it will be fixed by Judge Henry A. Mandell who heard the motion for a change of venue.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Representative McCulloch of Ohio, made public today a letter he had received from Homer E. Black of Canton, reciting complaints received from Ohio soldiers in the 332d infantry stationed at Cattaro, Balkan coast, of drunkenness among commissioned officers, insufficient food, poor clothing and lack of pay. Mr. McCulloch said he planned to call the matter to the attention of the house but would not introduce a resolution for an investigation because similar measures were not being acted upon.

GERMANS MOVE GOVT. TO WEIMAR

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Weimar, Monday, Feb. 3.—The process of temporarily transferring the German seat of government from Berlin to Weimar, where the national assembly is to meet Thursday, was completed today when Count Brockdorff Rantzau, the executive officer under Chancellor Ebert arrived in Weimar early this afternoon and established quarters in the palace.

TEMPORARY CHANGE IS MADE WHILE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY IS IN SESSION THERE.

The physical difficulties accompanying the task of the temporary transfer of the government here comprise chiefly an apparent shortage of manual laborers willing to haul and carry baggage. The city has been unable to supply of candidates for posts of porter but the members of the government on their arrival here had to search diligently for men willing to transfer the official baggage from the station to the palace.

Notwithstanding this handicap the cabinet minus its official records and other documents, managed to hold an executive session in the palace late in the afternoon.

The present government considers that its mandate expires with the convening of the constituent assembly and its first task will be to move the immediate appointment of a new coalition government, in the organization of which party interests will be eliminated.

The majority coalition will hold their first party caucus Tuesday morning. The German democratic faction will hold its party meeting at Erfurt near here.

WORKERS CONDEMN NATIONAL PROHIBITION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Newark, N. J., Feb. 6.—A "no beer no work" slogan was announced today by representatives of 26,000 building trades workers, who condemned national prohibition an avowed to ask the Essex Trade Council, comprising many thousands of union men in Newark and vicinity, to start a movement for a strike throughout the state July 1, when the temporary war-time prohibition law becomes effective. The delegates favored manufacture and sale of light wines and beer.

ASKS OHIO SENATORS TO SUPPORT SUFFRAGE

Archangel, Feb. 6.—Heavy losses were inflicted on the Bolsheviks by the American forces Tuesday and the army was driven back in disorder from the village of Vistavka, on the Vaga.

The American casualties were five killed and several wounded.

Many Bolshevik soldiers were taken prisoner by the Americans.

The enemy early in the morning began a bombardment with field guns and howitzers, and under cover of a shrapnel and pom-pom barrage, essayed a frontal attack with infantry in the afternoon. The American troops who were held back by their retreat from Shcheglovsk, and were now established in a good position, poured a heavy fire from machine and machine guns into the attacking Bolsheviks, whose ranks broke and fled in confusion.

WAR PROFITS TAX SLIGHTLY HIGHER IN REVENUE BILL

Conference Report on Long Delayed Measure Is Given to House

WILL YIELD SIX BILLIONS
IN 1919; 4 BILLIONS IN 1920

Revised Rates of Senate
Left Virtually Intact
In Finished Bill

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 6.—With the submission to congress today of the conference agreement on the long delayed war revenue bill, the American people were presented with their prospective federal tax budget for 1919, and ensuing years—something over $6,000,000,000 this year and $4,000,000,000 thereafter, subject to the revision of future rates expected to be undertaken by the next congress.

The conference report, presented to the house by Democratic Leader Kitchin was regarded as assured of adoption by both house and senate and of approval by the President. It thus promises to be the future American tax levy which now is about $3,000,000,000. Besides a year's levy of about $6,000,000,000 further treasury needs to be raised by bonds and other means are estimated by the treasury at about $12,000,000,000.

Except for slightly increased war excess profits rates for 1919, and corporations income tax rates for 1920, virtually all the rates revised in the bill passed by the senate, are approved by the conferees and remain in the final conference draft, like the original house bill and the senate's revision, the bulk of the taxes are levied upon incomes, individual and corporate. Rates of the senate on transportation, beverages, cigars and tobacco, amusement, admissions, club dues, luxuries and semi-luxuries stamp and special taxes all substantially were adopted by the conferees, while the house rates on estates and insurance were reinstated.

The principal rate increases agreed to in conference were to raise the corporation income rate of 1920 from eight per cent, as proposed by the senate, to 10 per cent, and an increase from 60 to 65 per cent on corporate excess profits for this year. The eighty per cent war profits tax for this year was adopted and, upon insistence by house conferees, extended to 1920, but made applicable next year upon such profits from government war contracts. Excess profits "bracket" rates of 20 and 40 per cent for 1920 also were approved.

Virtually all the so-called relief provisions or "cushions" of the senate, designed to prevent hardship in the situation of the corporation taxes were adopted.

In the important income tax section, the bill retains all senate rates, normal and sur-taxes, including that of 12 per cent double existing law, on corporations' income of last year but fixes the credits previously allowed, but fixes the rate for subsequent years at ten per cent.

The 12 per cent normal rate on individual incomes earned last year and the eight per cent rate payable in 1920, are retained with individual exemptions of $1,000 for single, and $2,000 for married persons, and an additional exemption of $200 for each dependent minor. Also adopted are provisions that individuals shall pay only six per cent, this year and four per cent, thereafter on the first $4,000 subject to tax above exemptions.

The senate individual sur-taxes ranging from one per cent, from incomes ranging between $5,000 and $6,000 to 6 per cent, on more than $1,000,000, were approved.

Of the important general legislation and "riders" the conferees adopted the following provisions:

Extending the prohibition tax on products of child labor.

Restoring pre-war postage rates on letters and postcards July 1 next.

Providing a pay bonus of $500 for all persons in the military establishment, officers and enlisted men alike.

Extending the Read "bone dry" prohibition law to the district of Columbia.

Increasing from $25 to $1,000 the tax on those dealing in intoxicants, including "still" in prohibition territory.

For taxation of estates of President and officials, including the President and judicial officers of state officials.

For submission of all government contracts by contractors on demand of the internal revenue commissioner.

For exemption of 20 per cent to oil prospectors.

Establishing an advisory board of six members, senate and treasury, and restricting sale and use of narcotics by strengthening the Harrison drug act.

Among important senate or house provisions stricken from the bill were:

Proposed repeal of the publishing second class postage increased charges.

The so-called "bone dry" amendment, which proposed 10 per cent taxes of political campaign contributions in excess of $500.

House amendments for a federal license tax on use of motor vehicles.

The so-called "business license" of $10, on business and professional men earning $2,000 or more.

Senate taxes on inheritances for which the conferees substituted house levies on estates.

The house tax of two cents a gallon on gasoline, and house amendments to tax state and municipal bonds and other securities.

Although most of the senate rates in the bill are retained, the conferees made many important changes affecting income and war excess profits taxation, rewriting scores of amendments and virtually re-drafting a substantial part of the measure.

AMUSEMENTS

GRAND.
"The Narrow Path" at the Grand (Thursday and Friday) is a strong virile drama of American life—a page to scan from the Book of Life. It presents a story as old as the Pyramids, and yet a story that is ever new. A tale of modern Belshazzar and his feastings. Of a woman's trustfulness and her penalty. A drama of the straight and narrow way leading to happiness and the broad way leading to destruction. The keynote of the play is expressed in one of the subtitles: God never planned a double standard—one for the man, another for the woman. And yet in the eyes of the world the woman always must pay. The Son of Man said: "Let him who is without sin amongst you cast the first stone." It is a saying as truthful now as in the day when Jesus walked upon the earth.

On the way to the ranch a rattlesnake bites Ferguson. He shoots it, and his horse carries him in a dazed condition to a shack where Mary Radford, an eastern novelist, is writing a book. The organ Manager Fenberg has purchased from the Estey company is Style 61 T, which contains 534 reeds. For comparative purposes, equivalent to 548 pipes in a pipe organ. The key-board or console is built on the general plan of a pipe organ, the stops or sets extending throughout the key-board (five octaves). The swell (upper manual) and Great (lower manual) sets are enclosed in separate swell boxes acted upon by the Swell Pedal as right above pedal key-board. A Patriotic Story.
John Stanton, son of an ammunition manufacturer, is prevented from enlisting by his mother, who is ill and who dreads to see her son go "over there." His father has been entrusted with the secret of a high explosive which he keeps in his safe and which is sought by a German spy who is employed in the Stanton ammunition plant. Mrs. Stanton exacts a promise from her husband to do all in his power to prevent their son from enlisting and to save his wife's life, as he believes, he bribes a physician to tell his son that he has heart disease and can not pass a medical examination.

This is the story of "The Claws of the Hun" in which Charles Ray is the star. It comes to the Alhambra Sunday.

AUDITORIUM.
Cavalieri Tonight.
When Mme Lina Cavalieri, the celebrated diva and screen star in Paramount pictures is seen in her new photoplay, "Love's Conquest," at the Auditorium today an tomorrow, the most which recently all but claved, his trainer to death during the filming of that photoplay, will be an important feature of the presentation.

In this superb photoplay Mme. Cavalieri portrays the role of a sixteenth century duchess in Athens. As the duchess Glismonda in "Love's Conquest," the famous operatic beauty, who is said to be "Europe's most beautiful woman," has a semi-barbaric role, which affords her numerous opportunities for the display of her matchless artistry as a portrayal of deep, subtle and robust roles.

"Playthings."
Is a woman's secret of her own past hers to keep, or must she tell it to the man who asks her to be his wife? This is one of the big themes of "Playthings" that has made such a sensation everywhere it has been produced and that will be seen at the Auditorium on Saturday afternoon and evening.

In leading up to the situation which makes this question a vital one in "Playthings," Sidney Toler, the author, has written a vital play that contains its direct lesson for every parent and for every girl. He scathingly arraigns that policy of many mothers of fathers in "shielding their daughters from the world" as they term it, by keeping them in ignorance, thereby making them the easier possible victims of the unscrupulous afterwards.

"Playthings" deals with the life of a girl alone in a great city and unprotected even by the knowledge of evil. She believes in the honor of a man to whom such a quality is unknown, only coming to a realization of what she has sacrificed when it is too late.

Seats are now on sale. A popular priced matinee is to be given Saturday.

FISH AND RABBITS

DISAPPEAR IN WAR

Letters from Corp. John W. Wharton to his sister Mrs. Charles L. Jones say that he believes, while they were shooting over there they must have shot up every thing even to the fishes, for he hasn't seen a fish or a rabbit since being overseas.

On January 5th he wrote that they were looking for orders to pack up their stuff and move but that they didn't know where they were going.

The letter reads:

"I am all right and feeling fine and having a good time here in this little town they call Very. It is some place about 5 or 6 houses in it now as it is all shot up you know. And it sure is some muddy here too, so muddy that it runs on the road like water and we ride around like you do on Buckeye Lake in boats you know, ha ha."

"What all did you have for Christmas dinner today something good I suppose and what did you get for Christmas present? Were you like me, 'nothing' ha ha. The Y. M. C. A. sent us all some cakes and candy and cigarettes. I think that was pretty good don't you? We are going to have a game of cards pretty soon do you want to get in? I bet Charley would get in all right if he had a chance. We don't play for money you know, but just for fun. We have some fun. We were up about half of the night last night so I think I will get to bed pretty soon now. How are the rabbits now. Are you getting any of them? I haven't seen a rabbit since I have been up here where they were fighting. I guess they killed them all with gas."

"Haven't seen any fish either. I guess they are all killed too, but we should worry just so there are some left at Buckeye Lake."

The second letter reads:

"Am still trying to keep my word to you all and write every week, but it sure is some job. Can't find anything to write about you know. Am all right and feeling fine and having a good time. We are looking for the word to come to get ready to pack up our stuff and move but don't know where we will go. Wish it was for home."

"This sure has been some day here. It has rained all day and there is a high wind and it has been cold too. Had to stay in all day as it was Sunday, so we did not have to work, so we washed clothes and cut wood all day. How are you all back there now and what all are you doing? Are you riding around much now in the machine or can you get out with it."

"I haven't seen or heard anything from my Battery since I left it and can not tell you much about them, but I guess they are all O. K. Would sure like to get back with them again."

"Am still with the 3rd C. A. I. so if you write put this address on it that I give you at the end of this letter."

NEWARK BOY BILLETED IN TOMBSTONE WORKS

Mrs. George Minturn of 32 North Buena Vista street has had several interesting letters from her son private A. E. Markle, with the American army abroad. In one of them he sent her a photograph of a tombstone works, where he was billeted for a week.

In another letter he sent her the Christmas menu of Co. H, 54th infantry, of which he was a member. The menu was attractive.

Markle left for overseas July 6 and arrived at Glasgow, Scotland, July 18. After finishing training in France he was with his company in the Vosges mountain sector from Sept. 7 to Oct. 13, when it was relieved by a French division of infantry.

After remaining in a rest camp at La Thillot, France, until Oct. 25, the company participated in the Argonne-Meuse drive until the armistice was signed.

Playing Safe.

Billy wrote a letter to Santa Claus and when he finished he asked his father for a check. "Cause," said the little fellow in way of explanation, "of course Santa Claus has to pay his helpers or maybe they'd go off and strike on Christmas eve."

Cascarets for Mother's Pets

Careful mothers know that Cascarets in the home mean less sickness, less trouble, less worry, less cost. When one of the kiddies has a white tongue, feverish breath, sour stomach or a cold, a Cascaret quickly and harmlessly "works" the poisons from the liver and bowels and all is well again—only 10 cents a box.

TO MOTHERS! While all children detest castor oil, calomel, pills and laxatives, they really love to take Cascarets because they taste like candy. Cascarets "work" the nasty bile, sour fermentations and constipation poison from the child's tender stomach, liver and bowels without pain or griping. Cascarets never disappoint the worried mother. Each ten cent box contains directions for children aged one year old and upwards.

BOX COAT'S NEWEST THING FOR SPRING

The box coat has come back, but even the fashion dictators can not say how long it will stay. There is not much enthusiasm shown except by the very slender, very youthful young persons who can wear anything. The stout women and even the shops are not taking to this new fashion with the same spirit that they took to trench or uniform coats last season. The suit pictured, however, would win even the most skeptical to admire the box coat.

Remember This.

They were small businesses a few years ago, but through continuous advertising they have grown to large institutions. Think this over.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! A SMALL BOTTLE STOPS DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Your hair appears glossy, abundant, wavy and beautiful.

Thin brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine to-night—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It gets right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties causes the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.—Advt.

Milady's Boudoir

Eradicating Wrinkles.

If your face is badly wrinkled a fifteen minute massage each day will be necessary, but if there are only a few tiny lines, five minutes will suffice. Before the treatment the face should be washed with hot, soapy water and with a complexion brush. After it has been rinsed carefully and dried, the skin should be coated thickly with the following cream.

White wax one half ounce, sweet almond oil two ounces, lanolin one ounce, spermaceti one half ounce, coconut oil one ounce, tincture of benzoin two drops and orange flower water one ounce. Place the first five ingredients in a double boiler and melt over a slow fire. When melted and mingled smoothly take from the fire, add the benzoin and orange flower. Fluff with an egg beater until cold and pour into small mouthed jars for use.

The forehead lines should be massaged with a circular motion, using the finger tips of the right hand and holding the skin taut with the thumb and forefinger. It is very easy to rub in more wrinkles than you can ever rub out. Place the first and second fingers on the nose just above the eyes and massage out beyond the eye corners, then sweep in underneath the eyes toward the nose. Use a very light pressure.

The cheeks should be massaged up from the point of the chin, using the palm of the hand. To efface the laughing wrinkles put the first and second fingers underneath the center of the lower lip, then massage up beyond the corner of the mouth and up toward the nostril. Hollow under the chin and behind the ears should be massaged with a delicate rotary motion of the fingers. After this massage is completed wipe off the surplus cream and spray the face with this astringent: Benzoin thirty drops, mucilage of aloe thirty drops and lime water one ounce.

Every Day Etiquette

"Do you think it would be correct for me to wear a linen colored dress around the house?" asked a little widow who had been in mourning only a few months.

"It is of course better not to wear a color yet, about the house one can wear a color if you wish. It is better to wear white. Not until two years have passed, should you wear any color."

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

IS NEWARK SATISFIED?

The Evidence Is Convincing—The Testimony Open to Investigation.

Before a statement can be accepted here, it must be supported by testimony—by the evidence of someone residing in Newark. Statements from unknown people in remote places may be true, but we cannot prove them. Here is a statement by a Newark resident.
O. E. Ryan, proprietor of grocery, 104 East Main street, says: "I suffered at times from a lame and painful back, brought on by the disordered condition of my kidneys. My kidneys didn't act as they should. I knew they needed attention. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used with such good results in the family that I tried them. They soon straightened me up in good shape and regulated my kidneys."

The per capita investment in the village of Norwich in itself was $134, against the government's request for a distribution of $20 from every person.

ASKS COURT TO SETTLE LIENS AGAINST FIRM

The Board of Education of Lima township rural school district has filed a petition in the court of common pleas against Albert Burkart, et al., which states that on September 13, 1916, the plaintiff entered into a contract with the defendant, A. Burkart & Son, whereby the latter agreed to furnish material and labor for a school house to be built at Summit Station, Lima township; that a number of material men have presented claims to the board against A. Burkart & Son, the board having refused to pay them; that the contractors named in petition, have filed mechanics liens against the latter and which greatly exceeds the amount of said fund, and that each is antagonistic to the other as to the priority of payment from said fund. The plaintiff asks the court for permission to pay the fund into court for proper distribution.

PUNISHES BOY WITH AIR GUN; IS FINED

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fabian and Mrs. Fabian's brother of Seroco avenue, were in police court this morning. The two men charged with assault upon a boy named Sabiano. The testimony developed the fact that the boy was using an air gun to shoot at mark and the little shot went too close to Mrs. Fabian's head. She was at work hanging up washing in the yard at the time. Fabian went after the boy and pulled his nose and his wife's brother also interfered. Mayor Robertson fined them $5 and the costs each and told them in the future to report such matters and not attempt to punish the aggressor.

PRAYER OF AN UPRIGHT MAN

At End, Make Ceremony Short and Epitaph Simple, "Here Lies a Man," Is Final Supplication.

"Publicity Magazine," contains the following prayer, contributed by Homer McKee. Anyone who can utter this prayer in sincerity and truth must be an upright man, observes an exchange. Here is the prayer:

"Teach me that 60 minutes make an hour, 16 ounces one pound and 100 cents one dollar.

Help me to live so that I can lie down at night with a clear conscience, without a gun under my pillow and unharmed by the faces of those to whom I have brought pain.

Grant, I beseech Thee, that I may earn my meal ticket on the square, and in doing thereof that I may not stick the gaff where it does not belong. Deafen me to the jingle of tainted money and the rustle of unholly skirts. Blind me to the faults of the other fellow, but reveal to me my own.

Guide me that each night when I look across the dinner table at my wife, who has been a blessing to me, that I have nothing to conceal.

Keep me young enough to laugh with my children and to lose myself in their play.

And then when comes the smell of flowers and the tread of soft steps, and the crunching of the hearer's wheels in the gravel, out in front of my place, make the ceremony short and the epitaph simplest: "Here Lies a Man."

BOOK MARKS ARE CONVENIENT

Strips of Ribbon of Narrow Width, Perhaps in Dark Red, Answer the Purpose Well.

What do you use for book marks? Probably you either turn down the leaf of your book in dog-eared fashion or else open the book flat and lay it face down on a table, or else slip a strip of paper or a strand of thread in your place when you wish to keep it.

We seem to have lost our liking for book marks, and they are so convenient that the loss is strange, observes an exchange.

Of course, some books have ribbon markers attached to their backs, and these are tremendously convenient. Strips of ribbon of a narrow width, perhaps in dark red, are also convenient, although whenever these are decorated they are out of place.

Then, too, it is possible to have book marks made from your book plate, or especially designed and made of stiff paper, notched to slip over the top of the page.

Music Makes Work Easier.

Successful use of phonographic music is to utilize it as an aid to penmanship work. According to a report of an instructor in a New England high school, music acts as a speed guide for the penman, just as the metronome beats time for a beginner in music. It is this man's experience that music takes off the fatigue and drudge of writing letters and stimulates the mind in a tedious job. It helps to create a correct and uniform speed, furnishes an exact count for the formation of letters, and thus furnishes rhythm. Waltz and fox-trot records are placed on the phonograph in accordance with the rhythm desired for each exercise by the penmanship students.

Why not spread this happy thought and stimulate our energies in all work by an invigorating, snappy tune? Apparently the player-piano and the phonograph have not half told their story as yet. We have long appreciated their aid in entertaining our guests, but it is gratifying to know that they can assist in the household as well.—Exchange.

Gleaning.

Gleaning is wrongly believed to rest on a common law right in England, and a legal "obiter dictum" exists that a man who enters a field for this purpose cannot be prosecuted for trespass. But a majority of judges in the old court of common pleas decided that to grant a general right to glean would be contrary to public policy, because "it would demoralize the poor," says the London Chronicle, and "open a wide door to fraud." Yet a local custom of gleaning has been recognized repeatedly by acts of parliament, and in some places the "gleaning bell" still rings from the tower of the parish church twice a day during harvest to let the villagers know when they may begin to glean and when they must stop. Ruth's romantic industry seems unknown in Ireland, and has never existed in Scotland.

Land of Vast Distances.

If you wish to travel from Peking in Northern China to Hongkong in Southern China you will have a sea voyage of 2,000 miles to cover after you sail from the port of Tientsin. You do not fully appreciate the vast distances you have to travel in China until you actually become a visitor in this strange land and are compelled to secure transportation somehow, some way, no matter how rudimentary. China is a country of gigantic sizes and vast areas, but when it secures railways and trolley lines throughout its empire distance will be annihilated beyond China's fondest dream.

A Modest Request.

"So an old friend like you refuses to lend me a paltry $5?"
"Yes."
"Well, at any rate, lend me a dollar to pay for the taxi I took to come and ask you."

Ever run the matrimonial market there is fine distinction between a bargain and a remnant.

OHIO STATE TELEPHONE STOCK
Opportunity for Profitable Investment.

The Ohio State Telephone Company has sold an issue of 4 year 7% notes, convertible at the option of the owner, into Preferred Stock, or Bonds of the Company.
The financing paid off the Company's floating debt, in addition to providing funds for other corporate purposes.
The financial condition of the Company is excellent and the former necessity for applying all of the net surplus earnings to capital account no longer exists.
The net earnings, after all deductions for fixed charges, and an ample depreciation fund cover the 7% dividends on the preferred stock, and a substantial surplus which warrants the payment of dividends on the Common stock.

The Government Lease

The Ohio State Telephone Company is under Government Control, terms of the lease guaranteeing to the Company fixed charges of every description, including annual interest on the issue of 4 year notes, an annual fund of $500,000 for depreciation and maintenance of the properties; and in addition thereto compensation of $500,000 per year for corporate purposes. Out of this fund the Company pays dividends on the Preferred Stock which requires in round figures $363,000 per annum.
To pay 4% dividends on the outstanding Common Stock would call for $250,000 per annum, and leave more than $100,000 margin.
The government took over these properties in August 1918, and in five months following earned a surplus over and above the requirements of its lease.

7% Preferred Stock Tax-Free Investment.

The Earnings of the Company are amply sufficient to provide the wherewithal to meet the requirements of fixed charges, and dividends, irrespective of the Government Contract.
The preferred stock paying 7% dividends and convertible on the Cincinnati Stock Exchange at 95, is a prime investment, free from State Taxes in Ohio, and returned at that price 7-13-17.
The value of the physical properties of the Ohio State Telephone Company, the growth of its business, its demonstrated earning power, and the existing contract with the Postmaster General warrant us in expressing our opinion that Ohio State Telephone Company Stock is worth today at least $30 a share, but quoted at less than $30.
Full particulars will be furnished on request.

PRISONER OF HUNS HAD GREAT EXPERIENCE

In a letter to his parents private William A. Fulk, Co. D, 325th Infantry, of the 82nd division says that just before the fighting ceased he had been transferred into a new company and that they were hiding when the big thing happened. "The Huns have turned our prisoners loose and they had some great experiences while they were prisoners" taken from the letters which read:

PRIVATE WM. A. FULK.

had stated that they had ceased. We were resting when the news came to us and we were all tired out but were very glad to get the news. The company that we had joined had just been out of the front lines about a week when we were transferred to it and if the war had not stopped when it did would have had to go to the front in about 30 more days. A few of the old men went away on a pass and when they came back told us that the war was over for sure. We have been waiting quite a bit of time and I guess we will have to parade when we get back to the states and I am not very much in love with it for I do not like to drill very well anyhow. When I was in one French town I saw some of the men from the division that Henry Fulk came with. They were M. P.'s but none of them knew him; I was in hopes that I would get to see some of the boys from around home, but did not get to see any of them. I suppose that most of them are home by this time. They always leave some of their non-commissioned officers in place; we left the most of our there. There are only about five or six of the boys that used to be in my old company at Camp Wheeler here in the company I am in now.

I suppose you had a good Christmas this year. I had a very good one considering everything. There are five of us that are detached from our company to the scouts and we stay with the battalion headquarters. We bought two chickens that cost us 30 francs in French money which is $6.00 in U. S. money and one of the fellows and myself walked about 15 kilometers to get them and an old French lady cooked them for us. She charged us 16 francs to cook them and some fried potatoes, bread and milk and some kind of salad. It all turned out to be a very good dinner. The chickens were roasted. Potatoes are very plentiful over here and we get a great many potatoes to eat and bread is not so very plentiful but we are able to get some once in a while and it tastes very good.

We all hope to be home before the winter is over. The Huns have turned our prisoners loose and they had some great experiences while they were prisoners.

The second letter reads: I just received your letter this morning and sure was very glad to get it. I had a letter the other day and you told me that I could write to Carl at the hospital; that was the letter you wrote to me the 14th of October. I was out on the old Atlantic about 9 days when it was written and almost to France by the time it was mailed, for we landed in the harbor on the 15th and disembarked the 16th. Am very glad to hear that Carl is getting along all o. k. for I have been very much worried about him since I received the first letter.

There seems to be a lot of influenza here but they seem to have a remedy to check it by now. I expect that brother has been discharged by this time. I am particularly awaiting the time when I will get mine and be a free lay once again. We have had a lot of inconvenience here but it is not so bad now. The chaplain opened up a Y. M. C. A. in this town and now we can get candy, cigars and tobacco and cigarettes, so it is not quite so bad as it was at first. We have been in this town about two months and are hoping to get out of here and get started for home, but I do not know how long we will have to await our turn. They say that there are eight divisions to start for home and we hear that we will be one of the divisions to start. I guess we will go to Camp Gordon, Ga. that is 35 miles farther north than Camp Wheeler, but I hope that they will get us out of here at Camp Gordon, N. Y. for it is a very nice place and a good place to get started out of. Yesterday our chaplain got a lot of jam and candy and smoking tobacco, some condensed milk and it sure was a treat. It all came from the American Red Cross.

The trip was a good one in a comfort and I enjoyed it very much. I was from the 32nd division and I was in the 32nd division. This and the 32nd division were the only ones that were not sent to the front and I was very glad to be here. The 32nd division was the only one that was not sent to the front and I was very glad to be here. The 32nd division was the only one that was not sent to the front and I was very glad to be here.
